DIVIDEND CAPITAL WELCOMES JOHN KENDALL AS REGIONAL DIRECTOR FOR CENTRAL CALIFORNIA

Dividend Capital Securities is pleased to welcome to its team, John Kendall, as regional director primarily responsible for the distribution of all commercial real estate investment products through financial advisors in the Central California territory and the state of Hawaii.

Prior to joining Dividend Capital, Mr. Kendall was a regional vice president for AXA Distributors. Before that, he was a regional vice president at MetLife Investors and vice president at Equitable Distributors. He has over 13 years of experience in the financial services industry and also served five years in the U.S. Navy as a cryptologist technician with top secret security clearance. Mr. Kendall holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from California State University in San Bernardino, California.

Dividend Capital Securities is part of Dividend Capital Group — an investment management company focused on developing and managing commercial real estate products. The company's principals and management teams are widely recognized and respected for their accomplishments within the industry. With expertise in the public and private real estate sectors — as investors, operators and financiers — Dividend Capital has built a solid reputation for thoroughly understanding cash flow metrics and the underlying fundamentals of the real estate industry.
